Junior Counseling Program

Ages: 14-15 years or entering grades 9-10

The Junior Counselor program allows young adults the opportunity to train to become a possible future camp counselor. Participants will develop leadership skills by assisting the camp staff with daily activities at Veterans Memorial Park; Junior Counselors will receive guidance in the areas of lesson planning, safety and organizational skills. This is truly a rewarding experience for young adults who are interested in working with children! Interviews will begin mid-May.
